

5. Incorporation Steps	54	8. Tax Sheltered Savings for Retirement	75
5.1 Application to the college	54	8.1 The RRSP	75
5.2 Setting up the share structure	55	8.2 The individual pension plan (IPP)	77
5.3 Subscription of shares	56	8.3 The retirement compensation arrangement (RCA)	78
5.4 Transferring your practice to the corporation	56	8.4 Standard RCA	79
5.5 Employment agreements	57	8.5 Split dollar RCA	79
5.6 Administrative details	60	8.6 Leveraged RCA	80
5.7 Choosing the year end for the corporation	61	8.7 RCA – non-resident retirement	80
5.8 Share subscription and the corporate bank account	62	8.8 Summary of the advantages of an RCA	81
5.9 Other matters	62	8.9 The holding company	81
5.10 Initial cash distribution strategy	62	9. Planning for Financial Independence	82
6. Medical Partnerships	64	9.1 How much income do I need during retirement?	82
6.1 The “stacking” method	64	9.2 Planning tips	84
6.2 Winding up the partnership	65	10. Maximizing Tax Deductions	88
6.2.1 Individual partners	65	11. Insurance	90
6.2.2 Incorporated partners	67	11.1 Life insurance	90
6.3 Joint venture arrangements	68	11.1.1 Term to 100	91
7. GST Issues – Tips and Traps	69	11.1.2 Participating whole life	91
7.1 Transfer of assets to the corporation	69	11.1.3 Universal life	91
7.2 Exempt health care services	69	11.2 Deductibility of insurance premium	92
7.3 Medico-legal reports	69	11.3 Disability insurance	92
7.4 Multiple practitioners & cost sharing arrangements	70	11.4 Office overhead expense insurance	94
7.5 A sole practitioner using the services of a locum	70	11.5 Critical illness	94
7.6 Contracted physician associates	71	12. Selecting Advisors	96
7.7 Partnership	72	12.1 Ensure your advisors are prompt	96
7.8 Costing sharing arrangements	72	12.2 Ensure your advisors are pro-active	96
7.9 Using the services of a management company	73	12.3 Ensure your advisors know your business	96
		12.4 Insist on the organ grinder	97
		12.5 Avoid conservative advisors	97